FOR FALL 2021 ADMISSION

ABOUT ITEP

The Indigenous Teacher Education Project (ITEP) is a University of Arizona College of Education program for Indigenous students majoring in elementary education. ITEP empowers and develops participants' skills in integrating Indigenous knowledge, values, and language into the classroom. With the completion of ITEP, students become certified teachers in Arizona and earn a Bachelors of Arts in Elementary Education with an ESL endorsement.

ADMISSIONS

You must belong to one of the 22 tribes in the state of Arizona.

THE FOLLOWING COURSES ARE REQUIRED FOR ITEP ADMISSION

If these courses are not completed by time of application, email coe-itep@email.arizona.edu
